FOR CONGRESS

HULL—The Sentinel is authorized to announce Cordell Hull as a candidate for the democratic nomination for representative in Congress from this, the Fourth Congressional district, subject to the democratic primary election to be held August 1, 1918.

In writing of representatives in congress Savoyard, special newspaper writer has the following to say about Congressman Hull:

"There is that modest man, Cordell Hull of Tennessee. By many he is regarded as the most valuable man in congress to-day. He has made a special study of the question of taxation, and possibly he knows more about the income tax than any of them. He is saturated with the philosophy of it, and he remains in congress, Cordell Hull will live in history as in the front rank of the very elite of wise statesmen. I don't know whether anyone is after his seat or not. I hope not, and I have merely writ the truth about him.

Chautauqua A Success.

The Radcliffe Chautauqua was in full blast from Friday until Monday, with its "Wake Up America" program, which was a great treat for those who attended, and especially the two lectures by Dr. Culp, which were worth the price of admission. Outside of one performance, the entire program was interesting and enjoyed. The Spragues in "Rip Van Winkle" was another feature well worth the price, which will long be remembered. At a meeting of those who had signed the contract to pay for the Chautauqua an agreement was made that each guarantor pay his prorata and turn the tickets over to the local Red Cross Chapter and let them have the proceeds of all tickets sold, which amounted to $275. The Chautauqua manager failed to get enough men to sign up for its return next year.

Lend your money as freely as our boys are giving themselves.

Should we not consider it a privilege to save to help our boys?

Putnam County Boy Killed In

No-Man's Land--Six Dead Germans by His Side.

Cookeville, Tenn., June 19.—Sam Lafever of the Eighth civil district of Putnam county is the first soldier of this county to be killed in France.

The report of the details of his death, received by letter by his parents, states that he was a member of a small raiding party which started across No Man's Land. He failed to return and his brother and some of his comrades went into No Man's Land in search of him. They found him dead, with his empty pistol in his hand, his body riddled with bullets, and around him and within twelve feet of his body lay the dead bodies of six Germans whom he had killed in the death struggle in which he had been engaged. The brother who found the body left last fall, with one of the county's quotas of drafted men.

The people of this county have been stirred on account of the information received relative to the heroic death of this brave young soldier. He was reared in the Eighth civil district of Putnam county where his parents now live. He was with General Pershing in Mexico and was a member of the first American Expeditionary Force which went to France.

A movement is on foot in this county to arrange for a permanent memorial in honor of the memory of this gallant soldier.

New Food Administrator.

W. L. Dixon has been appointed County Food Administrator in place of B. L. Quarles resigned. Mr. Quarles has been and is now giving most of his time serving the government in several other branches, neglecting his own business affairs, and his resignation was caused by him having more jobs than he could look after and do justice to the government. He has left nothing undone in the performance of his duty toward the government. The government has acted wisely in the appointment of Prof. W. L. Dixon as his successor, as he is in every way capable and qualified to carry on and look after this work in the same efficient way as our former Administrator.

Large Crowd Hears Preston.

Hon. T. R. Preston, of Chattanooga, State Director of the War Savings spoke at the courthouse Sunday to an audience of 1200. He delivered a message which was of great interest to the people who had assembled to hear him. Lieutenant Choyce, the British soldier, who was advertised to be with Mr. Preston, was unable to be here, on account of being unexpectedly called to Washington. It is hoped, however, that we will have the opportunity of hearing this great fighter in the near future.

NOTICE TO REGISTRANTS.

All men heretofore in class 1 or class 2 who have been reclassified must surrender their final classification card and receive a card showing new classification: P. J. Anderson, Chm. Local Board.

When one of our soldiers or sailor boys makes the supreme sacrifice we say he died doing his duty. When one of us over here buys an interest-bearing government security we want to be called a patriot. Let's buy War savings stamps to help our country and not to be glorified.

Big Wildcat Still Raided.

Bill Tyler, of Cookeville, the noted raider, captured a wildcat distillery last Wednesday about 6 miles south of Gainesboro taking in three prisoners and several gallons of booze. Mr. Tyler and one of his sons had crawled about 100 yards thru some high weeds, right upon the boys before they knew anything about it. The boys were doing about when they heard a racket, and looking around found themselves facing two big revolvers. There were only two in when the officers got there and they told he officers that the still belonged to another man, whereupon Mr. Tyler suggested that they wait a few minutes and see if the owner wouldn't come in, and in a few minutes, the supposed owner, Herschel Stafford walked in and was taken prisoner. The other two were Ed Finn and Abner Stafford. They were carried to Cookeville where they made bond.

Soldiers in Training at T. P. I. School.

Cookeville, Tenn. June 18, 1918: Dear Editor: Be sure and send me the Jackson County Sentinel. When you are in Cookeville stop at the T. P. We drill three hours each day and go to school seven. The other 14 left we build pikes, do house work and guard duty.

I don't have time to bat my eyes. We sure don't have time to get home sick and I don't see how we could. The people of Cookeville are trying their best to show us a good time and believe me they are.

Our Captain complimented us today by saying that we had already learned as much as some of the boys at various camps had learned in 9 months. You may know by that, that we are some guys.

Sincerely,

WAR PROCLAMATION

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES PROCLAIMS FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1918

AS

NATIONAL WAR SAVINGS DAY

GOVERNORS AND MAYORS MAKE SIMILAR PROCLAMATIONS

Meetings will be held in every community to secure subscriptions for War Saving Stamps.

Pursuant to the proclamations of the President of the United States and the Governor of this State, I, War Savings Director for Tennessee, acting under the authority of the United States Treasury Department, have called all tax-payers and wage-earners to meet Friday, June 28th, to give their subscriptions for War Saving Stamps. In rural communities and the smaller towns and cities, meetings will be held in the school houses at 2 p. m.

Officers will conduct the meetings in each school house, keeping a record of the proceedings and reporting the names of all persons present and the amount of War Savings Stamps subscribed for by them. The names of absent persons, and of those who refuse or neglect to subscribe, with their reasons for so doing, will also be reported.

War Saving Stamps (which are United States Government Bonds the same as Liberty Bonds) can be paid for during any month in the year 1918, but it is intended that all subscriptions will be signed for them on June 28.

The price for each War Saving Stamp depend upon the month during which it is bought. During June each Stamp will cost $4.17. In July each Stamp will cost $4.18, and so on, one cent more each month during 1918. On January 1, 1923, the Government of the United States will redeem all War Savings Stamps at $5.00, no matter during which month in 1918 they were bought. They cost less during the early months in 1918 than the later months because the person who buys earlier has loaned his money to the Government for a longer time than if he should buy later.

By way of illustration, note the following table:

Cost of War Savings Stamps during June, July and August, 1918:

	Cost in June	Cost in July	Cost in Aug.	Worth Jan. 1, 1923
1 Stamp	$ 4.17	4.18	4.19	5.00
20 Stamps	83.40	83.60	83.80	100.00
50 Stamps	208.50	209.00	209.50	250.00
100 Stamps	417.00	418.00	419.00	500.00
200 Stamps	834.00	436.00	838.00	1,000.00

The law provides that no person can hold in his own name War Saving Stamps exceeding $1,000 maturity value. War Saving Stamps, however, may be purchased for other members of the family, including minor children.

The money invested in War Savings Stamps is not a gift, or a donation, but is a loan to the Government. It will all be paid back with 4 per cent compound interest. If, because of some serious financial reverses, or calamity, it should be necessary to get your money before January 1, 1923, you may do so by giving ten days' notice to any Money Order postmaster, in which case you can get what you paid for the Stamps, with interest to date of payment. The Stamps are free from all State and local taxes; when registered at the postoffice they are insured against loss; they are backed by all the property in the United States; they cannot fall in value below the price you paid; they are as convenient and as well paying an investment as has ever been offered by our Government.

A definite quota of War Savings Stamps has been assigned each Civil district and community, which will be announced at each meeting on June 28th. The Government of the United States expects all the citizens of every Civil district and county to subscribe for its quota and to pledge themselves to save and economize to help win the war.

It is to be hoped that the subscriptions taken at the meetings in your county will show you and your neighbors to be loyal Americans to whom our Government, in this hour of need, does not call in vain.

T. R. PRESTON

War Saving Director of Tennessee appointed and acting under the authority of the Secretary of the United States Treasury.
